DanceEast is custodian and curator of the Jerwood DanceHouse, the home of dance in the East of England. Its vision is to make the East of England a place where everyone has the opportunity to engage with great dance. Its mission is to raise aspirations and transform lives through a programme of work that champions excellence, engages the public and inspires artists.

DanceEast presents a diverse programme of performances that includes national and international dance artists and companies, emerging artists and young people. A range of support is provided for artists at all stages of their career, including an Associate Artists scheme and a Choreographic Development Fund. DanceEast work in partnership with other national venues to develop the breadth and appeal of dance for young people and families; and is also a partner in the National Dance Network and the European DanceHouse Network, both of which work to increase opportunities for artists and audiences.

DanceEast runs approximately 50 classes each week in various dance styles for fun, fitness and professional development. DanceEast is also home to one of nine Centres for Advanced Training in Dance supported by the Department for Education to enable young people with exceptional potential in dance to work towards a professional career.

DanceEast maintains its commitment to rural communities across East Anglia, running programmes and projects in schools, health and community settings in and beyond Ipswich. Community performance groups promote training, creative and performing opportunities for young people across the county.

DanceEast works in education and community outreach involving people of all ages and abilities and takes dance to urban and rural communities. In 2017/18 there were almost 49,000 attendances in participatory activities throughout Suffolk and the East of England.

DanceEast supports innovation and the development of new dance work by artists, whether it is training, creation or performance. A new cohort of Associate Artists joined the organisation in April 2018 and included: Tim Casson, Julie Cunningham and Joseph Toonga; and Kaia Goodenough as a Junior Associate Artist.

DanceEast is a registered charity and company limited by guarantee and is grateful for the support of Arts Council England, Suffolk County Council and Ipswich Borough Council, a range of trusts and foundations and the many individuals who all contribute to the vibrancy of DanceEast's extensive programme of excellent dance experiences.

DanceEast has an annual turnover of approximately £1,600,000. The Jerwood DanceHouse comprises 4 dance studios; a studio theatre; offices and meeting rooms; and a café. DanceEast has a staff team of 45 full-time and part-time staff, including a number of core tutors.

Further information about DanceEast can be found at: www.danceeast.co.uk

DanceEast is the home for dance in the East of England.

It provides extraordinary dance performances, life-affirming participatory opportunities for all and a world-class environment for artists at all stages of their careers.

Introduction

DanceEast is one of the UK's leading dance organisations. It is based at the Jerwood DanceHouse in Ipswich, the home of dance in the East of England. DanceEast's programme embraces the artistic, educational, social and recreational roles that dance plays in the local and national arts ecology. It places artists at the heart of the organisation, presenting high-quality high-profile dance work in the Jerwood DanceHouse and offering artists support, development and stimulation via programmes such as the Associate Artist Scheme, Rural Retreats, Professional Development workshops, advanced level classes and the Choreographic Development Fund. DanceEast has been running a range of innovative community projects for over thirty years, working closely with partners on local, national and international projects.

Purpose of the Post
